The Creator

Kymberly Stewart

Kymberly Stewart is a GRAMMY nominated singer/songwriter, musician, actress and early childhood music educator who is on a mission to provide quality entertainment for children and families.

After constantly being told, "You're funny!" by her preschool music students, Kymberly got the great idea to create a show that would allow kids to see just how funny she is. Playing various characters, including a fictional version of herself, Kymberly has created a developmentally appropriate show with the nostalgia of classic tv sitcoms.

Kymberly writes, produces and co-produces all of the music on the show. She has released a children's CD, several singles and has appeared on a number of artists' projects.
